

ROMANTIC OPERA SCHEDULE FOR HOLDS INTEREST 'MOVIES' GOOD

Barber of Seville Is Played For the Benefit of Tina Paggi.

Lovers of the romantic opera were not disappointed in the presentation of "The Barber of Seville," by the Italian Grand opera company, Friday night. From the rise of the curtain on the street scene in Seville, featuring Spanish serenaders, to the final chorus, the audience never lost interest in the comical situations, humorous episodes, and laughable incidents that arose at every turn in this delightful, sparkling opera.

Tina Paggi proved her worth as a singer of the first magnitude with her rich rendition of several difficult arias. Her portrayal of Rosina, the ward of the barber of Seville, easily won the applause of her hearers. In the aria "Una voce poco fa," the little sight-singer demonstrated the remarkable range of her sweet, rich and beautiful voice.

Alfredo Grazioplene, as Figaro, the jolly, rollicking troubadour, showed in splendid advantage in the aria "Largo al factotum." He was enthusiastically received at every appearance.

Edwardo Lejarazu, as Don Basilio, showed wonderful expression in the aria "La Cullana," singing this song with a deep, rich and sympathetic tone that delighted his many admirers.

Period Heard in Title Role. Leopoldo Perini, as Don Bartolo, assumed the title role with ease and the many funny situations in which he was placed kept up the interest of the audience throughout the three acts of the performance. He was at his best in the duet with Rosina.

The performance was given as a benefit for Tina Paggi. El Pasoans will have an opportunity of witnessing another fine operatic success tonight when the company plays "Cavalleria" and "Pagliacci." On Sunday afternoon at 2:30, the company will present "Tosca" with Paggi, Ramirez, Grazioplene and Lejarazu, and the opera company will conclude the El Paso engagement with "Aida" Sunday night at 8:30.

W. J. W. Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Her Penny Cones Delight the Kids Who Cares That the Rich Must Pay?

By K. C. R.

DEAR K. C. R.—I have discovered a place where a woman who runs a tiny candy shop for children and who sells an occasional newspaper still sells ice cream cones for a penny and defies the government in its demand for a tax on penny ice cream cones. Knowing the price of cream per gallon and how utterly impossible it is to sell the cream for a penny a cone without loss, I asked her why she did it and this was her answer: "How can I refuse these poor kiddies who come with their one penny. It is so hot and they are so warm and thirsty and it seems a shame that so many cannot afford more than a penny a day while others have so much more. So I simply cut down the quantity in the rich little children's cones and give the difference to the poor little children. In other words, I make the rich pay for the poor."

How about it, K. C. R.?

AND WHY not?

AND ILL say she's right.

IN SPIKE of the trouble.

THAT CAME to me.

ON THE very day.

I RECEIVED your letter.

AND THE trouble is.

THAT ONE year ago.

I SPENT some weeks.

WHERE I'm living now.

AND I'D walk a mile.

TO GET to a car.

AND GO into town.

TO BUY green things.

THAT WE could buy.

AT THE neighborhood store.

AND I'D get off the car.

AND WALK around.

AND GET all hot up.

AND DO my shopping.

AND WHATEVER the price.

IT WOULD be all right.

AND THEN this year.

WE CAME back again.

AND BEFORE we came.

WE HAD bought a car.

AND IT keeps me broke.

JUST RUNNING it around.

AND I'M much worse off.
